

Literacy Council of Northern Virginia

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

1/9/2020

Media Contact: Shuyang Wang

703-237-0866 x103

swang@lcnv.org

Pictures available upon request

Literacy Council of Northern Virginia Begins Spring Class Registration for 2020

Fall Church, VA – The Literacy Council of Northern Virginia (LCNV) is hosting February to April classes for beginning-level adult English language learners. Classes are held at various locations in Northern Virginia, including Alexandria, Annandale, Falls Church, Herndon, Lorton, and Springfield. Registration begins Wednesday, January 8, through Tuesday, January 21. The classes are designed to provide adult English language learners the fundamental skills to understand and communicate in English, helping them to better engage in the community and advance their careers. In addition to beginning English classes, LCNV offers skills-based classes, family learning programs for parents and children, as well as intensive English classes for job seekers.

Classes are $85.00 with books and assessment included (unless otherwise noted), and scholarships are available. In-person registration is required, and students may attend any registration for any class location. Registration times and dates are available at <https://lcnv.org/learn/>, or call 703-237-0866 for more information.

About the Literacy Council of Northern Virginia (lcnv.org)

The Literacy Council of Northern Virginia (Parade magazine's Outstanding Charity for Virginia) serves 1,500 adult learners annually with its mission to teach the basic skills of reading, writing, speaking, and understanding English so they can access employment and educational opportunities and more fully and equitably participate in the community. LCNV is one of only a few non-profit organizations in all of Northern Virginia that complies with federal education standards as it serves the most beginning-level adult learner.

###